

Nicole Lester Arrindell is Founder and President of NLA Strategies LLC a leadership consulting firm and success incubator that helps high-achieving women become more influential, results-driven, trusted, and confident leaders. Nicole works with individuals and corporate clients globally. Her services include engaging keynotes, interactive workshops, online courses, and coaching programs that inspire, inform, and provide practical, ready-to use tools. She has 20 years of experience speaking to audiences throughout the U.S. and internationally.

Throughout her career, Nicole has held many leadership roles including multiple senior attorney positions; serving as Chief of Staff for a New York State Assembly Member; Senior Business Development Manager at Fannie Mae in Washington, DC, where she financed the development of 2,500 units of affordable housing in cities across the country; and serving as a Program Manager and Assistant Director of two Washington, DC based national nonprofit organizations. Nicole was recognized by Congresswoman Yvette Clarke as a New York City Shining Star, by City & State magazine as a 40 Under 40 Rising Star in New York City, and she was selected by the prestigious Council of Urban Professionals (“CUP”) as a 2016 CUP Leadership Institute Fellow.

A committed servant leader, Nicole is actively involved in a number of community activities and has served on numerous committees and boards. Additionally, she is an Adjunct Professor of Law at Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law. Nicole is admitted to practice law in the state of New York and the Supreme Court of the United States.

Nicole is passionate about supporting the professional development and mentoring of women and she consistently makes room for mentors, mentees, and friends in her life. When she is not busy chasing dreams or ambitious goals, Nicole enjoys spending time with her supportive husband which usually involves chasing after their two boys.
